

A FEW , FEW , A LITTLE . LITTLE

GUIDED DISCOVERY

A few and Few ; A little and little

A. She has been here for only two weeks, but she has already made a few friends .

I feel sorry for her. She has (very) few friends.

Is 'a few' and a few used with countable or uncountable nouns?

Is 'a few' used to show something positive or negative?

Is 'few' used with countable or uncountable nouns?

Is 'few' used to show positive or negative?

Summarise the above in a sentence or two.

B. I'm very pleased. I've been able to save a little money this month.

He has little money. He doesn't even have enough money to buy food.

Is 'a little' used with countable or uncountable nouns?

Is 'a little' used to show something positive or negative?

Is 'little' used with countable or uncountable nouns?

Is 'little' used to show something positive or negative?

Summarise the above in a sentence or two.
