

FUTURE PERFECT CONTINUOUS MULTIPLE CHOICE

1. He is _____ for three years to get his money by next May.
(will have be wait / going to have been waiting / are going to have be waiting / will have you been wait)
2. They are _____ for ten minutes when ambulance finally arrives.
(going to have be suffer /going to have been suffering / will have been suffering)
3. The man _____ working for nearly eight hours by the end of the day. (will have beed / will have been / is going to have be)
4. We _____ for two days non stop by the time we have dinner.
(will have been travel / will have been travelling / will going to have been)
5. Will _____ in Mexico for five years when you visit her?
(she have been study / she have been go studying / she have been studying)
6. _____ hiking for one year when the trip ends?
(Are they will have going to be / Are they going to have bee / Are they going to have been)
7. You _____ for two hours when it gets dark.
(are not going to have been fishing / will not are going to / have not been fishing)
8. The badger is dying of hunger and is _____ hunting for two days without success unless we arrive with some food for it very soon.
(will have been / going to have been / will going to have)
9. I _____ for one full hour by the time the plumber gets here.
(will have been wait / am going to have been wait / am going to have been waiting)

10. The engine _____ for five minutes when I am ready use it.
(will have been running / will have ran / will be running)
11. The homeless man _____ on the streets for one whole year tomorrow as he has only been homeless since last month.
(won't have been living / won't been have living / is have been living)
12. The accused _____ for three days tomorrow, for his verdict as the jury only went away to decide yesterday.
(won't have be waiting / won't have be wait / won't have been waiting)
13. How _____ fighting for thirty minutes non stop ?
(will he have been / will he have be / will have he been waiting)
14. He _____ for 2 hours by 9 o'clock, if he continues eating at this rate.
(will have been cook / will have been cooked / will have been cooking)
15. She is scheduled to see the doctor in ten minutes, which means she _____ _____ for ninety minutes by the time it is her turn.
(will have been within / will have been waiting / will have been)

ANSWER SHEET

FUTURE PERFECT CONTINUOUS MULTIPLE CHOICE

1. He is _____ for three years to get his money by next May.
(will have be wait / going to have been waiting / are going to have be waiting / will have you been wait)
2. They are _____ for ten minutes when ambulance finally arrives.
(going to have be suffer / going to have been suffering / will have been suffering)
3. The man _____ working for nearly eight hours by the end of the day. (will have beed / will have been / is going to have be)
4. We _____ for two days non stop by the time we have dinner.
(will have been travel / will have been travelling / will going to have been)
5. Will _____ in Mexico for five years when you visit her?
(she have been study / she have been go studying / she have been studying)
6. _____ hiking for one year when the trip ends?
(Are they will have going to be / Are they going to have bee / Are they going to have been)
7. You _____ for two hours when it gets dark.
(are not going to have been fishing / will not are going to / have not been fishing)
8. The badger is dying of hunger and is _____ hunting for two days without success unless we arrive with some food for it very soon.
(will have been / going to have been / will going to have)
9. I _____ for one full hour by the time the plumber gets here.
(will have been wait / am going to have been wait / am going to have been waiting)

10. The engine _____ for five minutes when I am ready use it.
(will have been running / will have ran / will be running)
11. The homeless man _____ on the streets for one whole year tomorrow as he has only been homeless since last month.
(won't have been living / won't been have living / is have been living)
12. The accused _____ for three days tomorrow, for his verdict as the jury only went away to decide yesterday.
(won't have be waiting / won't have be wait / won't have been waiting)
13. How _____ fighting for thirty minutes non stop ?
(will he have been / will he have be / will have he been waiting)
14. He _____ for 2 hours by 9 o'clock, if he continues eating at this rate.
(will have been cook / will have been cooked / will have been cooking)
15. She is scheduled to see the doctor in ten minutes, which means she _____ for ninety minutes by the time it is her turn.
(will have been within / will have been waiting / will have been)

