

REPORTED SPEECH - PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS - MULTIPLE CHOICE

Choose the correct answer fro each question

1. "He's only been playing football for half an hour," said the football coach.
 - a) He had only been playing football for an hour said the football coach
 - b) The football coach said that he had only been playing football for an hour
 - c) The football coach said that he has only been playing football for an hour

2. "My girl has been sleeping for a long time and I'm getting worried," said the young mother.
 - a) The young mother said that her daughter had been sleeping for a long time was getting worried
 - b) The young mother said that her daughter has been sleeping for a long time and is getting worried
 - c) The young mother was getting worried because her daughter has been sleeping for a long time

3. "The thief has been hiding from the police for about two days," said the news reporter.
 - a) The news reporter was hiding from the thief
 - a) The news reporter said that the thief was hiding from the police for about two days
 - c) The news reporter said that the thief had been hiding from the police for about two days

4. "Alicia has been studying hard for about a year," said her mother.
 - a) Alicia's mother said that Alicia had been studying for about a year
 - a) Alicia's mother said that Alicia has been studying for about a year
 - c) Alicia's mother said that Alicia is studying for about a year

5. "Your eggs have been boiling for too long," said George.
 - a) George said that his eggs was boiling for too long
 - b) George said that his eggs had been boiling for too long
 - c) George said that his eggs has been boiling for too long

6. "Allen has been playing for too long and needs to been substituted," said the football coach.
 - a) The football coach said that Allen had been playing for too long and needed to be substituted
 - b) The football coach said that Allen had been playing for too long and needs to be substituted
 - c) The football coach said that Allen has been playing for too long and needed to be substituted

7. "I have been lifting heavy weights most of my adult life," said Jim.
 - a) Jim said that he had been lifting heavy weights most of his life
 - b) Jim said that he has been lifting heavy weights most of his life
 - c) Jim said that he was lifting heavy weight s most of his life

8. "Donald has been studying English since he was a toddler," said his mother.
 - a) Donald's mother said that he has been studying English since he was a toddler
 - b) Donald's mother said that he had been studying English since he was a toddler
 - c) Donald's mother said that he was studying English since he was a toddler

9. "The electricity has been running for two days non stop," said the police officer.
 - a) The police officer said that the electricity was running for two days non stop
 - b) The police officer said that the electricity has running for two days non stop
 - c) The police officer said that the electricity has been running for two days non stop

10. "The wild dog has been chasing the cat for a while now," said the old neighbour.
 - a) The old neighbour said that the wild dog was chasing the cat for a while
 - b) The old neighbour said that the wild dog had been chasing the cat for a while
 - c) The old neighbour said that the wild dog has been chasing the cat for a while

ANSWER SHEET REPORTED SPEECH - PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS - MULTIPLE CHOICE
--

Choose the correct answer for each question

1. "He's only been playing football for half an hour," said the football coach.
 - a) He had only been playing football for an hour said the football coach
 - b) The football coach said that he had only been playing football for an hour
 - c) The football coach said that he has only been playing football for an hour

2. "My girl has been sleeping for a long time and I'm getting worried," said the young mother.
 - a) The young mother said that her daughter had been sleeping for a long time was getting worried
 - b) The young mother said that her daughter has been sleeping for a long time and is getting worried
 - c) The young mother was getting worried because her daughter has been sleeping for a long time

3. "The thief has been hiding from the police for about two days," said the news reporter.
 - a) The news reporter was hiding from the thief
 - a) The news reporter said that the thief was hiding from the police for about two days
 - c) The news reporter said that the thief had been hiding from the police for about two days

4. "Alicia has been studying hard for about a year," said her mother.
 - a) Alicia's mother said that Alicia had been studying for about a year
 - a) Alicia's mother said that Alicia has been studying for about a year
 - c) Alicia's mother said that Alicia is studying for about a year

5. "Your eggs have been boiling for too long," said George.
 - a) George said that his eggs was boiling for too long
 - b) George said that his eggs had been boiling for too long
 - c) George said that his eggs has been boiling for too long

6. "Allen has been playing for too long and needs to be substituted," said the football coach.
 - a) The football coach said that Allen had been playing for too long and needed to be substituted
 - b) The football coach said that Allen had been playing for too long and needs to be substituted
 - c) The football coach said that Allen has been playing for too long and needed to be substituted

7. "I have been lifting heavy weights most of my adult life," said Jim.
 - a) Jim said that he had been lifting heavy weights most of his life
 - b) Jim said that he has been lifting heavy weights most of his life
 - c) Jim said that he was lifting heavy weights most of his life

8. "Donald has been studying English since he was a toddler," said his mother.
 - a) Donald's mother said that he has been studying English since he was a toddler
 - b) Donald's mother said that he had been studying English since he was a toddler
 - c) Donald's mother said that he was studying English since he was a toddler

9. "The electricity has been running for two days non stop," said the police officer.
 - a) The police officer said that the electricity was running for two days non stop
 - b) The police officer said that the electricity has running for two days non stop
 - c) The police officer said that the electricity had been running for two days non stop

10. "The wild dog has been chasing the cat for a while now," said the old neighbour.
 - a) The old neighbour said that the wild dog was chasing the cat for a while
 - b) The old neighbour said that the wild dog had been chasing the cat for a while
 - c) The old neighbour said that the wild dog has been chasing the cat for a while