

MUCH VS MANY

Add “much” or “many” to complete the sentences.

- 1) There is a lot _____ information on this computer.
- 2) There too _____ evil men in this world.
- 3) He is full up because he ate too _____ rice.
- 4) Don't drink too _____ water.
- 5) I have seen that _____ times.
- 6) Sorry, I don't no _____ about that.
- 7) There are _____ people in John's office shouting.
- 8) There is not _____ sand to play with.
- 9) She doesn't have _____ money left.
- 10) The sandwiches have too _____ butter in them.
11. This grammar book has _____ examples.
12. You don't have _____ time left. You must leave now!
13. I have been there so _____ times already.
14. He has so _____ hair on his head.
15. There is too _____ smoke in this room. Please open up some windows.

ANSWER SHEET

MUCH VS MANY

Add “much” or “many” to complete the sentences.

- 1) There is so much information on this computer.
- 2) There too many evil men in this world.
- 3) He is full up because he ate too much rice.
- 4) Don't drink too much water.
- 5) I have seen that many times.
- 6) Sorry, I don't no much about that.
- 7) There are many people in John's office shouting.
- 8) There is not much sand to play with.
- 9) She doesn't have much money left.
- 10) The sandwiches have too much butter in them.
11. This grammar book has many examples.
12. You don't have much time left. You must leave now!
13. I have been there so many times already.
14. He has so much hair on his head.
15. There is too much smoke in this room. Please open up some windows.